A.	Powerpoint presentation: Māngere-Ōtāhuhu Local Board Input - Alcohol Controls Bylaw	3

Māngere-Ōtāhuhu Local Board

Review of Alcohol Bylaws

Lydia Sosene (Chair)

Background

- Holds a strong position to reduce alcohol related harm in its local board area (sinking lid)
- Highest concentrations most at risk from alcohol harm: Young people, Māori and Pacific people, and people from the most deprived neighborhoods

Research

- Alcohol is a contributing factor in more of our road accidents
- We have above-average drink-driving offences

Māngere-Ōtāhuhu Board

- welcomes the proposed 'Alcohol Control in Public Places Bylaw'.
- welcomes the proposed delegation of decision-making powers to local boards to consider and make future alcohol ban areas.
- Alcohol-related harm minimization one of our highest priorities

Māngere-Ōtāhuhu Board

Requests:

With utmost importance that along with delegation of responsibility delegated, funding, is made available for local boards to carry out these responsibilities
