Local Board member attendance at the NZI Planning Conference

File No.: CP2015/04294

Purpose

1. This report seeks the local board's approval for Chairperson Fairey to attend the New Zealand Planning Institute's (NZPI) Back to the Future 2015 workshop titled Tools for the Future working with the RMA on Tuesday, 14 April 2015 at the Aotea Centre.

Executive Summary

2. NZPI's national conference 14-17 April 2015 are hosting a workshop for Elected Representative and Independent Commissions, titled Tools for the Future working with the RMA. Speakers include former CEO of Manukau City, Leigh Auton; retired Environment Court Judge Gordon White and RMA expert public sector lawyer Bill Loutit, and Wendy Turvey, who manages the Making Good Decisions training. The workshop will teach attendees how to operate more effectively and will include interactive sessions, capacity building and networking opportunities.

Recommendation/s

That the Puketāpapa Local Board:

- a) report be received.
- b) endorse the attendance by Chairperson Fairey at the New Zealand Planning Institute's Back to the Future 2015 workshop titled Tools for the Future working with the RMA.
- c) approve the payment of the workshop fees of $150 including GST from the Board's Elected Members Training budget.

The New Zealand Planning Institute invites planners and allied professionals from around the world and New Zealand to Auckland for the 2015 NZPI Annual Conference, Back to the Future.

#B2Future will bring together the brightest of minds from across the planning spectrum to facilitate conversations and new thinking on complex issues facing communities. Now more than ever, planning influences a number of key issues that shape local communities and our daily lives.

#B2Future provides a global forum to discuss and address key issues using technology and lessons from our past to shape the future.

With more than 800 delegates expected, 2015 is an ideal opportunity to network and share ideas from this diverse and wide-ranging industry, hosted in New Zealand's fastest growing city, Auckland.

This is our time, our place in history to

ELECTED REPRESENTATIVE AND INDEPENDENT COMMISSIONERS WORKSHOP

Tools for the future working with the RMA

TUESDAY 14TH APRIL

12.00 PM - 5.00 PM

The Elected Representatives and Independent Commissioners Workshop is the opportunity for elected representatives and independent commissioners to gain or enhance their awareness about practice relevant to the Conference themes and location.

This year it will be held on Tuesday 14th April, prior to the start of the main conference. The workshop will include presentations along with interactive sessions, capacity building and networking opportunities on:

- ▶ The Auckland Unitary Plan Independent Hearing Panel - the process so far, some of the challenges to-date and what the outcomes will look like
- ▶ Implications of recent case law relevant to roles as plan development and/or resource consent decision-makers, and
- ▶ A training workshop focused on Making Good Decisions, delivered by Wendy Turvey, Programme Manager, Opus - This will provide a snap shot of the Making Good Decisions training covering the ethical, legal and practical requirements of decision-makers under Resource Management Act 1991.

Leigh Auton will be the MC for this important session bringing his wealth of knowledge and experience to flavour the session. Leigh is Director of Auton & Associates Ltd, Ex-CEO Manukau City and past Interim CEO at Tauranga City Council.

To register for this workshop, please visit the conference website. Note this workshop is included in a full registration to main conference. Lunch and afternoon tea are included.
