Te Whai Oranga - Māori Sport and Recreation Plan Update

File No.: CP2015/19170

Purpose

1. To provide an update on the Te Whai Oranga Māori Sport and Recreation Plan of the Auckland Sport and Recreation Action Plan (ASARSAP).

Executive Summary

2. In September 2013, the Regional Development and Operations Committee endorsed the Sport and Recreation Action Plan including the development of a Māori Sport and Recreation Plan.
3. This plan is jointly led with He Oranga Poutama ki Tāmaki (Sport Waitākere). To date, co-facilitated community engagement hui have been completed.
4. Development of the framework for the plan has commenced. Please see attachment A for graphic representation of the framework.
5. A fuller overview of the project progress will be presented at the committee meeting by Te Waka Angamua staff.

Recommendation/s

That the Parks, Recreation and Sport Committee:

- a) note the contents of the Māori Sport and Recreation Plan update.

Comments

Background

6. In 2011 the development of a Māori Sport and Recreation Plan was recommended by He Oranga Poutama ki Tāmaki (Sport Waitākere) in their submission to Auckland Council's Auckland Plan development.
7. In September 2013, the Regional Development and Operations Committee endorsed the Auckland Sport and Recreation Action Plan including the development of a Māori Sport and Recreation Plan.

Update

8. He Oranga Poutama ki Tāmaki (Sport Waitākere) and Auckland Council co-facilitated community engagement hui between October 2013 and July 2014.
9. Development of the framework for the plan has begun. Please see attachment A for graphic representation of the framework.

Te Whai Oranga – Māori Sport and Recreation Plan

10. The draft Te Whai Oranga framework intends to guide the prioritisation of activities that will contribute to ASARSAP, Māori Plan and Auckland Plan outcomes.
11. Benefits to stakeholders may include:
 - a. Re-affirms council's commitment to Māori by valuing te ao Māori and supporting Māori aspirations
 - b. Supports Māori communities and agencies to develop and direct activities
 - c. Positions sport and recreation as a vehicle to broader strategic outcomes (e.g. economic, social and cultural).
 - d. Enable collaboration to shared outcomes from existing and new partners.

Local board views and implications

12. Local Boards have not been consulted in the production of this report.

Māori impact statement

13. This draft plan framework has been informed by a review of relevant literature, good practice examples and hui with both Māori sport and recreation and community agencies.

14. Benefits to Māori may include:

- a. Increased numbers of Māori active in sport and recreation.
- b. Increased numbers of Māori leading and organising activities.
- c. Increased awareness of self-identity and cultural awareness.
- d. Contribution to improved health and wellbeing of families.
- e. Increased knowledge and practice of traditional Māori games, recreation and sport.
- f. Māori-led events (e.g. Iron Māori) and partnership opportunities.
- g. Enabling partnering opportunities with Māori sports organisations.
