

5

Five people who partner

Meet five characters - or personas - who are typically involved in a facility partnership. They're fictional, but their experiences are based on a range of conversations with real people. We will create a full set of personas to help us test our ideas during the next phase of the project. Anything we produce has to work for the people it's intended for.

