Dawn Trenberth Local Board Report

November 21 2017

Highlights this month were the Papatoetoe arts show which had an impressive number of entries with people from all parts of the Papatoetoe community entering and taking part. Credit and thanks must go to the organisers of this fabulous event. Another highlight was the Indian Warden's launch. It is wonderful to see this getting off the ground and credit must go to Rana Judge for his efforts in encouraging and supporting this initiative. Another highlight was the Hunter's corner Business Association AGM which had many enthusiastic participants requiring and election again for the Committee. The Otara community meeting was well attended and led very well by our MP Jenny Salesa and Local Board Chair Lotu Fuli.
