Special Olympics National Summer Games 2017

Last week, the Special Olympics North Island & National Olympic Committee Football team, advised the Ashland District Football Federation (ADFF) to organise a football clinic in Ashland for the Special Olympics National Summer Games 2017.

ADFF has been successful in securing the clinic for the Special Olympics National Summer Games 2017. The clinic will be held on the 15th and 16th of February at the Ashland District Football Federation (ADFF) grounds. The clinic will be held at the Ashland District Football Federation (ADFF) grounds. The clinic will be held at the Ashland District Football Federation (ADFF) grounds.

Joint venture with Northern Football Federation today in bringing a Pre-AIMS competition to North Harbour for schools to gain practice in preparation for next month's tournament in Teauranga. Our local lads (from as far north as Kamo) and lasses (5 girls teams!) spent the entire day playing against other schools, on a stunning day at Rosedale Park. Huge thanks to Melanie Giles (NFF Community Development Officer), Hayley (NFF Women's Development Officer) and Chris Casey (NFF Referee Development Officer) for getting behind Albany United Football Club and helping make today the success that it was.

How Albany United compares in resource:

	Men's	Women's	U19's	Masters	TOTAL	Members based on average of 18 people per team	Training needs in hrs/week, assuming all teams train twice per week for 1.5 hours	50% of training hrs/week, assuming some team don't train twice	Whole football fields to accommodate training requirements every night assuming running 6pm to 9pm	Whole football fields to accommodate training requirements every night assuming running 6pm to 9pm for 60% of training	Dedicated football fields for 12 months per year	Requirement @ 60% vs actual current pitches
