Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

We expect to continue with the Sham-e-ghazal classical music night as a form of social gathering. We will continue to publish the magazine twice a year in three languages, each time aiming at improving quality and providing insight into New Zealand culture.

People of Asian origin get together, socialise and enjoy. It's good for their wellbeing. The poetic symposium in their own language gives pleasure to the people. The rich culture and literature help them to reconnect to their roots.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- support and enable a diverse range of local community groups to initiate and implement projects and activities
- build strong neighbourhoods where people feel safe and connected at all times

Asian community people feel connected at all times with their culture. Feel the sense of belonging to their culture, tradition.

FWT follows a Holistic Approach to service the clients suffering from domestic violence and these workshops correlate strongly with that. It will facilitate less family violence incidences, more empowered families & community, more understanding and acceptable relationships with more connectedness within our community. It will facilitate participants' integration into NZ culture. It will provide an opportunity for our diverse community to interact with each other while discussing and getting awareness about common parenting issues and sharing their parenting experiences.

Participants will fill in a feedback form by the end of each workshop. They will not only rate the effectiveness of the workshop but also give their comments.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- support and enable a diverse range of local community groups to initiate and implement projects and activities
- build strong neighbourhoods where people feel safe and connected at all times

Puketapapa LocalBoard's support to FFWT will lead towards conducting two Effective- Parenting Workshops in Wesley Community Hall for our diverse community in Puketapapa. Workshops will provide a platform to our community to get together and interact. Workshops will facilitate community-empowerment through knowledge & create a sense of connectedness not only within the family but also within the community. Workshops will also promote understanding relationships and effective communication. FFWT has been successfully conducting community-empowerment workshops with the support of Otara- Papatoetoe & Mangere-Otahuhu Local Board. ### Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

Action Education is a youth development organisation with an edge. We use creative and action-based methods to ignite the engagement of young people at all stages of their development. This acts as a catalyst to begin a self-motivated journey of reflection and exploration which strengthens their self-esteem, confidence and sense of identity. We use Spoken Word as a tool to engage young people. Our programmes promote communication, positive dialogue and literacy. Spoken Word poetry gives young people from every walk of life a way to express themselves. We aim to provide a safe place in which young people can express and share their own personal viewpoints. Through shared stories our intention is to empower young people to break down stereotypes and isolation.

All services provided by Action Education have evaluation processes in place, which are then analysed and reviewed on a regular basis, this ensures best practice and enables our programmes to be more effective.

We would gather both quantitative and qualitative data.

We would ask ourselves – what have we done, with who, how well have we done and how better off are the young people that we worked with.

At a bare minimum qualitative would occur through:

- Evaluation forms
- Feedback from participants and communities we are working with
- Supervision
- Team feedback

- Analysing demographics of participants

Quantitative would occur through:

- Measuring our level of engagement and growth (participant numbers, number of events, number of communities impacted)
- Analysing demographics of participants

Alignment with local board priorities:

- promote healthy, safe, sustainable and active lifestyles
- build strong neighbourhoods where people feel safe and connected at all times

Poetry gives young people a safe outlet to express themselves. Poems range in topics as diverse as the race relations, poverty, or gender politics. Through shared stories Action Education's intention is to empower young people to break down stereotypes and isolation. Our work is underpinned by strong youth development processes that increase self-esteem, encourage resiliency and promote connection within peer groups, families, whanau and communities.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

Youthline services equip youth with skills and insights on how to build self-esteem and improve mental-health, how to actively problem-solve and recover from setbacks. Counsellors link them with local support services to assist their ongoing development. Through their improved emotional and self-management skills young people are less likely to fall into helplessness, depression, addictive behaviours, dangerous relationships and unemployment.

Evaluation of our work is important to us so we can continue to provide up to date, effective and relevant services to youth. Youthline will show we have achieved our aim to positively impact local young people and to help them towards achieving their potential through both quantitative and evaluative methods.

Youthline records connections made with young people through a specialised data gathering software package YODA. In 2017 YODA records show Youthline received over 300,000 requests for support through our helpline and early intervention services, including approx 3707 requests from the Puketapapa region.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- build strong neighbourhoods where people feel safe and connected at all times
- promote healthy, safe, sustainable and active lifestyles

Youthline's vital early intervention services give young people the opportunity to seek out information, problem solve an issue and to "talk it out". The services are both a preventative intervention for young people who need to talk through stressors and concerns as well as a first point of entry for young people who are experiencing crisis such as self-harming, suicidal thoughts or behaviour, family violence and a range of other difficulties. This early intervention service is staffed by a large team of approximately 400 helpline volunteer counsellors - supported by our Clinical Triage Team - providing immediate support, development opportunities and referral services.
