13 Development of open space land: Local park assets at Hobsonville Point

Resolution number UH/2019/8

MOVED by Member N Mayne, seconded by Member B Neeson:

That the Upper Harbour Local Board:

- a) note the completion of the wharf outlook development under the terms of the Infrastructure Funding Agreement, acknowledging that the underlying land is already vested in council.
- b) note the completion of the Chichester Cottage development under the terms of the Infrastructure Funding Agreement upon practical completion, acknowledging that the underlying land is already vested in council.
- c) approve the planning and design of the Harrier Point Park and Boundary Road developments under the terms of the Infrastructure Funding Agreement (including the art sculpture), acknowledging that the underlying land is subject to a subdivision consent and is not yet vested in council.
- d) note the completion of the east and west Sunderland bridges under the terms of the Infrastructure Funding Agreement, acknowledging that the underlying land is already vested in council.
- e) note the completion of the Catalina Water Play Park development under the terms of the Infrastructure Funding Agreement, acknowledging that the underlying land is already vested in council and is open to the public.
- f) approve the planning and design of the Rifle Range Park development under the terms of the Infrastructure Funding Agreement, acknowledging that it is open to the public and that the underlying land is subject to a subdivision consent and is not yet vested in council.
- g) note that regional asset based service budgets will need to provide for the maintenance of these parks assets as they vest in council and the original developer's responsibilities end.
- h) note that the names referred to in the agenda report are working names and the names for the reserves to be vested will need to come to the local board for approval in the future.
