A Pacific-Friendly Auckland

Koro Dickinson - Executive Officer and Lead Officer for the Pacific Peoples Advisory Panel
Purpose and Outline

- Outline examples of work council does to support Pasifika communities
- Next steps - where to from here?
- Pātaí/Questions.
Opening night of Alofaiga: Le Opera

- February 2019 at Nathan Homestead
- An immersive, outdoor, newly commissioned live work featuring an original music score by Paulima Salima, directed by Anapela Polata’ivao.
- Pasifika Regional Programming Budget (Arts and Culture) and Nathan Homestead Programming Budget (Community Places).
- Three consecutive evening performances with audience of 300 per night.
- Live stream recording of the event on Facebook and through Coconet TV.
Whau Pacific Peoples Plan 2019

- The Whau Local Board funded the Whau Pacific Peoples Plan 2019.
- It is the first plan at a local board level of its kind. The Pacific grants workshop was a response to the Pacific communities and one of many recommendations within the plan.
- 32 participants at this workshop.

Next Steps

- This session will help to inform future areas of focus for the council, via this committee and the Pacific Peoples Advisory Panel – and in turn support and empower our Pasifika communities.
- The Pacific Peoples Advisory Panel will continue to be a conduit for the community, and advise council on its strategies, plans and policies to deliver better outcomes for Pasifika people.
- Auckland Council staff will continue to engage with the Advisory Panel on work and initiatives.

Pacifica Mama's - "The Ei Project"
Rānui Library

Join the Pacifica Mamas for a morning of interactive storytelling and hands-on contemporary weaving as we celebrate the ultimate gift—Ei—a garland that signifies love, honour, and respect. The Pacifica Mamas are creating a large scale Ei to adorn the Auckland Town Hall and will share pacific stories and guide weaving hands in honour of their latest artwork.

Come along and share in the joy of Ei, with music, drumming, storytelling, and weaving at...
