

1. Car park and access to the grass area that is planned to make available for contractors

2. Access point (door with fly screen) to the existing staff room where contractor access will be to excavate under the building

