Project title	Gum Sarn: Evolving Notions Of Sweet Earth; Celebrating 150 Years Since Chinese Invited To Nz
Dates	17/08/2017 - 06/09/2017
Location	28 Clarence St, Devonport, Auckland
Summary	1. Gum Sarn is a participatory exhibition and series of events highlighting Chinese' rich contribution to NZ arts and culture, primarily referencing the Devonport-Takapuna community of which there is now a more than 20% Asian population. 2. The exhibition focuses on cultural beliefs, art, writing, architecture, market gardening, cuisine and celebrates its integration into NZ culture. E.g. A short film on the Gok family saving the kumara from extinction. 3. Gum Sarn is collaborative, jointly curated by Margaux Wong, photographer Megan Gok, Dorothy Wong and is supported by the wider Chinese community. 4. As well as the taken for granted, such as cuisine, It will include little known aspects of Chinese cultural history relating to market gardening and religion.
Focus specific information	N/A
Cost of participation	No
Requesting grant for	Exhibition curation and installation: Curation will include research, reaching out to contact members of the local Chinese community, collection, collation and documentation of artefacts and ephemera and installation in the gallery. Installation will require the use of a trained technician to ensure that the anticipated diversity of works are displayed both aesthetically and, where appropriate, in accordance with cultural protocols. For example, there will be a shrine exhibited as part of the traditional Chinese household and daily living and ritual which need to be given due place and respect.
Active participants	100	Audience size	1500
Promotion of activity	Yes, Promotion will be a significant part of this project as it's where the necessary education and receptiveness to the subject begin. It will involve wide dissemination in both specific Chinese publications along with standard press in order to attract a diverse audience. We will promote, and seek interviews through NSTA, Flagstaff, Channel Magazine, Depot Artspace Website and

	Facebook Page, through the Kwong Cheu Club, NZ Chinese Association and other Chinese Newspapers, as well as Chinese centres locally and throughout Auckland. One of our staff is fluent in Mandarin and will also talk to groups to which he may be invited.
Local board recognition	On all posters, our websites, catalogue produced for the exhibition, and in all media outlets using the local board logo and also by inviting them to opening event and publicly acknowledging them. Use of Chinese media will also raise the profile of the Local Board in this community. One of our Depot staff is fluent in mandarin and is also a member of a number of service clubs where he can speak and acknowledge the board.
Alignment with local board priorities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> our area's arts and culture is diverse, vibrant and well supported, neighbourhoods and community-led initiatives are supported and encouraged, activity that will create an innovation hub in the local board area, , , , Gum Sarn; Evolving Notions Of Sweet Earth: This participatory exhibition and series of events explore, honour and celebrate the recent (1900's onward) significant contribution of Chinese to NZ arts and culture, now an integral aspect of NZ's diverse culture and heritage. We wish to increase knowledge and appreciation of Chinese' place in NZ. Cultural components particularly pertinent to Devonport-Takapuna are; market gardens (Milford, Bayswater), cuisine, writers, artists and architects (many involved in the Depot's Artslab programme). Gum Sarn references 'gold mountain', or NZ as a land of opportunity and this exhibition showcases the mutual benefits of Chinese migration., , , ,

Project title	Providing gender identity and sexual orientation counselling and support
Dates	01/06/2017 - 31/05/2018
Location	level 2, 31 Hargreaves Street, St Marys Bay, Auckland
Summary	OUTLine already works with individuals, professionals and schools in the Devonport-Takapuna area, providing initial help and ongoing support from a free, confidential phone service. OUTLine collaborates to address needs of high risk people, especially for young people struggling with their identity and their ability to engage fully with their peers and educational processes. OUTLine recruits and trains volunteer phone counselors from all areas of Auckland.
Focus specific information
Cost of participation	no fee to volunteers or callers to participate. Face-to-face clients pay a below-market rate for counselling. Donations are encouraged.
Requesting grant for	OUTLine estimates approximately 200 calls in the last year from people in Devonport-Takapuna, as well as making professional face-to-face counselling available where needed and training phone counselors volunteering from Devonport-Takapuna. We estimate about 2% of our current resource is deployed for Devonport-Takapuna people, and we are seeking approximately that contribution to OUTLine's 0800 service budget
Active participants	140	Audience size	11250
Promotion of activity	Yes, We send out brochures to community agencies (medical centres, high schools, tertiary education, CABs, women's refuges, sexual health and other agencies) as well as print advertising in the LGBTI media and on LGBTI gaynz.com website. We are active with our own website www.outline.org.nz and on facebook and twitter. We attend information days at schools and tertiary education establishments. We use high-profile LGBTI events (such as the Auckland Pride Festival) to promote our services.
Local board recognition	We produce an annual report detailing our community partners. We would include acknowledgement of the local board, as well as on our website.

Alignment with local board priorities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> neighbourhoods and community-led initiatives are supported and encouraged OUTLine supports invisible minorities in neighbourhoods in a unique way: callers can speak freely, safely and confidentially to trained call-takers about any issue about their sexuality or gender identity. OUTLine trains volunteers and takes calls from the Devonport-Takapuna Local Board area. As a result residents have the unique ability to be themselves, and volunteers have the chance to give back to the community

Project title	Volunteer Recruitment and Mileage Expenses
Dates	01/08/2017 - 30/06/2018
Location	28 Sulphur Beach Road, Northcote
Summary	With an average volunteer tenure of just over three years, we must constantly recruit new volunteers to ensure we have sufficient numbers to maintain our 24/7 roster. We regularly advertise in local newspapers, on Facebook, through community noticeboards and other community groups. To provide our service, our volunteers travel to victims, to their homes, at the scene of an incident, at the local Police Station, or the District Court. This enables us to better meet victims' needs and reduce the burden on victims, but does come at a cost. We also ask volunteers to use their own vehicles, phones and computers. We offer to reimburse all reasonable cost, including mileage, parking fees and phone expenses related to their case work.

Demographics

Maori outcomes	Yes, Victim Support is a multicultural organisation with a strong integration of tikanga across all our services. Maori are drastically over-represented as victims of crime, and represent around a third of our clients. All our training is held on Marae and includes training on basic tikanga and te reo Maori. Our Board includes two Maori representatives, and Maori are well represented amongst our staff and volunteers.
Accessible to disabled	Yes, Our free services are available to all Members of our Community.

Project details

Project title	Street-front Fence Replacement
Dates	08/05/2017 - 24/05/2017
Location	Stanley Point
Summary	The fence on the street front of Stanley Point is inconsistent with the heritage of the area - it is constructed of micro corrugated iron and is 1.9m high (far exceeding the current regulations) creating a fortress effect obscuring the view of the heritage villa from the street. The heritage of the street will be materially improved by replacing this with a capped stone pillar with low nib wall and wooden panel inserts to heights of 1.6m for the pillars and 1.5m for the wooden panels. The palings in the wooden panels will be 10cm wide with 1cm spacing between each paling with every 5th paling featuring a shamrock (or similar) cutout .
Focus specific information	Manage and maintain: Conal and Trina Parr Building/site recognised in a council heritage schedule: No Building/site registered with the NZ Historic Places Trust: No Building/site accessible or visible to the public: Yes
