Demographics

Maori outcomes	Yes - CAF has a strong track record of providing support services to Māori. CAF provides support, advice and holistic, whanau-centred solutions to empower the entire family to manage the intense emotional and practical impact of autism. CAF ensures that all services are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>High quality, practical and effective</li> <li>Affordable and accessible</li> <li>Responsive to cultural concerns and aspirations</li> <li>Responsive to the broad range of autism issues</li> <li>Unified and integrated</li> </ul> A Māori Advisor supports programme development and CAF has one Maori family consultant. CAF aims to improve awareness and understanding within whanau and iwi, for understanding autism and working with other health/education professionals.
Accessible to disabled	Yes - Children's Autism Foundation provides direct support and specific programmes to children with autism and their families/whanau and professionals who work with them. All our Family Consultants are highly qualified and conversant with the latest research affecting children and young people with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Children with Autism often have additional diagnosis such as: dyslexia, dyspraxia, asperger's, anxiety, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), depression and intellectual disabilities. The Children's Autism Foundation therefore provides services to assist with the issues arising from the Invisible disabilities and works with other organisations who specialise in these areas. CAF is proud to be an active part of the Invisible Disabilities CUBE (a collective of providers in the community).

Project details

Project title	Providing gender identity and sexual orientation counselling and support
Dates	01/06/2017 - 31/05/2018
Location	level 2, 31 Hargreaves Street, St Marys Bay, Auckland
Summary	OUTLine already works with individuals and professionals in the Whau area, providing initial help and ongoing support from a free, confidential phone service. OUTLine collaborates to address needs of high risk people, especially for young people struggling with their identity and their ability to engage fully with their peers and educational processes. OUTLine recruits and trains volunteer phone counsellors from all areas of Auckland.
Requesting grant for	OUTLine estimates approximately 300 calls in the last year from people in Whau, as well as making professional face-to-face counselling available where needed and training phone counsellors volunteering from Whau. We estimate about 3.5% of our current resource is deployed for Whau people.
Cost of participation	no fee to volunteers or callers to participate. Face-to-face clients pay a below-market rate for counselling. Donations are encouraged.
Active participants	140	Audience size	11250
Promotion	Yes - We send out brochures to community agencies (medical centres, high schools, tertiary education, CABs, women's refuges, sexual health and other agencies) as well as print advertising in the LGBTI media and on LGBTI gaynz.com website. We are active with our own website www.outline.org.nz and on facebook and twitter.  We attend information days at schools and tertiary education establishments.  We use high-profile LGBTI events (such as the Auckland Pride Festival) to promote our services.
Local board recognition	We produce an annual report detailing our community partners. We would include acknowledgement of the local board, as well as on our website.
Alignment with local board priorities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• great local communities</li></ul> People worried about gender or sexuality issues suffer in many other aspects of life. Fear and stigma routinely result in isolation. Shame blocks resolving issues. OUTLine provides a clinically robust free service. ## Demographics

Maori outcomes	Yes - Māori families are often strongly supportive of their LGBTI people. We receive significant calls from Māori LGBTI people and their families seeking assistance with coming out and transitioning. We target Māori callers through the health system and community links as well as general advertising in LGBTI publications and web services.
Accessible to disabled	Yes - Our telephone service is highly accessible to people with most disabilities. We also offer a professional counselling service accessible both face-to-face from a mobility-friendly building and by Skype, which can support even hearing-impaired clients

Project title	Glendene Santa Run 2017
Dates	09/12/2017 - 09/12/2017
Location	Throughout the streets of Glendene with the final event held at Glendene Reserve, 3 Thornlow St, Glendene.
Summary	The 8th annual Glendene Santa Run will see volunteer firefighters drive Santa around Glendene in their firetruck to deliver gifts to children at 6 'Santa Stops'. The final stop will be at Glendene Reserve, where we organise free activities for children and their families and hold a sausage sizzle. The event has been historically popular and well attended by the community.
Requesting grant for	We are asking the Whau Local Board for approximately 40% of the cost of the event. As Glendene covers 2 Local Boards we will be asking the Henderson Massey Local Board for the remaining 60%. The funding will cover marketing material, children's entertainment, and other event costs, such as the Food for BBQ and Koha for fire brigade, as well as contributing to the giveaway bags (some goods will be donated). We have also planned to do a special end of year edition of our community newsletter which will celebrate our successful event with our community.
