

Work Programme Name	Local Board	Activity name	Activity description	Local Board Outcome	Outcome	Maori Engagement Mana Whenua, Wider Maori Community, No direct engagement	Activity Status	Risks and Dependencies	Notes
ENTREPRENEURSHIP &amp; ENTERPRISE
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Procurement	Identify and influence social procurement opportunities across the Auckland Council family which can have positive social and economic impact for South Auckland	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	Improved council engagement of Māori, Pasifika and locally owned enterprises Increase in Maori & Pasifika owned businesses Increased number of council family procurements with positive social and economic outcomes for South Aucklanders Increase number of positive employment outcomes for Māori, Pasifika and local people Increase the number of Māori, Pasifika and local enterprises directly contracted or sub-contracted	Mana Whenua, Wider Maori Community	Mangere Otahuhu Spatial Priority Area Fale Kofi - supporting the trial of a social enterprise selling food and drinks in Otahuhu Station Boffa Miskell - created 2 internships in landscape architecture for Otahuhu streetscape contract Portage Route - identified as a potential social procurement project, working with Auckland Design Office and Community Facilities to scope We have convened a small steering group to connect Corporate Aotearoa and Government (Central & Local) with Maori and Pasifika business. Our initial purpose is to utilise our collective knowledge and experience working with Maori & Pasifika businesses and the procurement teams from government and corporate Aotearoa to shape our Maori and Pasifika business sector.
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Enterprise Development	Work alongside local Maori and Pasifika businesses to understand their needs and reorient existing business development support and resources to meet those needs. Partner with key agencies such as ATEED, Pacific Business Trust and others to develop a strong network of trusted local professionals that businesses are able to tap into to increase capability, capacity and investment for South Auckland/Maori and Pasifika businesses	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	Increased wealth and job opportunities for locals	Wider Maori Community	4 businesses are currently a part of the South Auckland project. These are: Te Roopu Waiora Affirming Works The Roots Creative Entrepreneurs Stepping Stones  Phase 1 of the project is due to be completed in October 2017
	Mangere-Otahuhu	South Entrepreneurs Network	Create a network for South Auckland entrepreneurs to link, learn and collaborate together	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong		Wider Maori Community	Support the growth of local entrepreneurs Reorient business support services to meet the needs of local entrepreneurs
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Te Rerenga Manu Fono	A gathering of all interested in unleashing the entrepreneurial spirit in Pacific communities. To be followed with a range of activities designed through the fono.	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	Wide commitment from a range of sectors to improve social and economic outcomes for Pacific communities Further direction and support for TSI Pacific community related work	Wider Maori Community	Underway - marketing currently underway for fono which will be held on 31st August - 1st September
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Te Whānau Haua	Work with Te Roopu Waiora members to set up small businesses that utilise member's unique skills, knowledge and expertise to improve town planning, workforce capability and income into whanau haua households	A strong local economy A range of facilities to meet diverse needs A well-connected area A place where communities thrive and belong	Well designed cities and buildings that meet the needs of whanau haua Increased income into whanau haua households Increased connectedness into mainstream society Increased health and wellbeing for whanau haua	Mana Whenua, Wider Maori Community	Underway - Please refer to enterprise development for more information
	Mangere-Otahuhu	PopUPsouth/Food Truck	Support the development of PopUPsouth and the popUPfood concept for South Auckland	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong Mangere Otahuhu is the heart of Maori and Pasifika arts and culture	Increased capability and capacity of local community businesses and organisations increased awareness and celebration of Maori and Pacific arts, crafts and culture	Wider Maori Community	Working with Empowered communities Approach team to grow popUPsouth brand and network
EMPLOYMENT &amp; SKILLS
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Māori Pasifika Trades Training	TSI's Maori and Pasifika Trades Training (MPTT) helps Maori and Pasifika become leaders in the trades. MPTT trainees contribute to Auckland's economic growth while learning practical skills that are life changing for them, their whanau and kiwi communities.	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	The Southern Initiative's Māori Pasifika Trades Training is the most innovative and effective consortium in the country  Māori and Pasifika are employed in long-term, sustainable, staircased employment factoring in the average living wage nationwide of $20/hour and in Tamaki Makaurau $26/hour. We leverage procurement opportunities to put in place professional development plans for MPTT graduates that will ensure a living wage is achieved within two years from date of their employment.	Mana Whenua; Maata Waka; Maori and Pasifika small to medium sized business'. Maori engagement across the Council whānau.	We are currently developing a measurement tool which will give us a picture of the: Number of tauria completing training Number of tauria progressing into quality sustainable employment (living wage, 12+ months continuous employment) Number of tauria starting apprenticeships or an equivalent Innovative pastoral care and work readiness initiatives External financial and in-kind support attracted Data excellence achieved (consistent, relevant, informative and clean) Industry/employer-led initiatives Innovations in training curriculum (green skills, technology etc.) Number of women trained and placed into employment Our consortia comprises 51% Maori & 49% Pasifika of which 22% are Women Recent initiatives include: Monthly meetings with CEO's of all our participating PTE's is imperative to achieving our outcomes Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) with the CEO's of all our willing Employer Consortia are instrumental in ensuring that all learners can be transitioned seamlessly into long-term, sustainable, staircased employment	Programmes for drivers licencing Evolving drug testing regimes On-going pastoral care enhancement The search for funds to enable all the above
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Makerspace	Makerspaces are collaborative workshops where young people gain practical hands-on experience with new technologies and innovative processes to design and build projects. They provide a flexible environment where learning is made physical by applying science, technology, math, and creativity to solve problems and build things.	A strong local economy Mangere-Otahuhu is the heart of Maori and Pasifika arts and culture A place where communities thrive and belong	Higher youth engagement and uptake of Science Technology, Engineering and Maths related careers Improved awareness and interest from young people and community in STEM subjects Increase in STEM related local enterprises Increase in Maori entering into STEM related careers	Wider Maori Community	Through the Makerhood initiative, nurture the love for making and discovery based-learning using Maker and STEM technologies among Maori students and marae. Creating a central Makerspace in Manukau for the whole of South Auckland to enjoy, where people are able to congregate, learn and create together Input into Ngā Tai Hiriranga science wānanga Aim to increase interest and uptake among Māori students regarding STEM subjects in schools Scope possibility of hosting Tuhono I Te Ao wānanga in South Auckland
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Upsouth	Upsouth is a social innovation platform designed to raise awareness around civic entrepreneurship. Creative calls - callUPs are made by organisations which bring people together to think, collaborate and design solutions for their community, where their individual contribution can be remunerated.	A strong local economy Mangere-Otahuhu is the heart of Maori and Pasifika arts and culture A place where communities thrive and belong	A safe place for rangatahi to engage and contribute their thoughts and ideas on local issues Creating a mind-set that rangatahi can earn for themselves by developing their own entrepreneur skills Support for rangatahi with opportunity to earn money for their ideas. A network of creatives and entrepreneurs A place to connect with other local communities and rangatahi Kotahitanga and working together	Wider Maori Community	Increase rangatahi engagement in local challenges. Promote rangatahi work and talent through UPSouth and TSI marketing material. Invite rangatahi to have a voice in regards to local issues and topics. Support rangatahi to build their capability and entrepreneurial skills. Pay rangatahi for their comments and ideas. Introduce rangatahi to meaningful work.
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Ka Eke Poutama	A tailored programme for rangatahi to develop a cohort of engaged, confident and capable young Māori leaders – and to encourage, support and increase their participation in local, iwi and national governance roles.	A place where communities thrive and belong A strong local economy	Develop rangatahi governance capability, applicable in Māori and mainstream governance bodies including Council's governing body and Local Boards	Mana Whenua, Wider Maori Community	Graduation of 2017 cohort Increase in Māori standing for governance roles Increase in rangatahi participating in Tuia mentoring programme Increased awareness and capability amongst rangatahi regarding governance roles and responsibilities
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Governance and civic education	Scope appropriate governance leadership training for Māori & Pasifika currently in governance roles Scope civic education programme with Democracy Services	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	Improved capability of Māori & Pasifika currently in governance roles Improved awareness amongst Māori of civic matters including Council business Increase in Māori & Pasifika participation in LG elections	Mana whenua, wider Maori community	Work commencing early 2018
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Food Technology		A place where communities thrive and belong	Improved awareness and capability regarding traditional kai preservation methods Improved access to affordable, nutritious food	Mana whenua Wider Maori Engagement	Kai preservation wānanga held Scoping Kai incubator with ATEED Scope and prototype kai based enterprise initiatives Scope food enterprise opportunities with other indigenous nations Research kai waiporoporo

	Mangere-Otahuhu	Urban Conservation Corridors	Partner with DOC to increase awareness and buy in from community to looking after our environment	A place where environment and heritage are protected, enhanced and preserved A place where communities thrive and belong	Enhanced relationships between mana whenua, mataawaka and the wider TSI communities and DOC Improved community ownership of environmental, cultural and social outcomes Improved Māori environmental, cultural and social wellbeing	Mana whenua, Wider Maori Community	Identify projects for collaboration that align with DOC, mana whenua and mataawaka priorities Project plan and implementation agreed, resources confirmed Facilitate workshops between DOC, mana whenua and marae
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Māramataka	To increase awareness of and enable use of mātauranga Māori by mana whenua in their kaitiaki activities Child friendly māramataka prototype to be developed Mātauranga To increase awareness of and enable use of mātauranga Māori by Māori and community to align their activities in tune with the rangi, the whenua and the moana	A place where environment and heritage are protected, enhanced and preserved A place where communities thrive and belong	Improved awareness of Maramataka and matauranga Māori Improved awareness and understanding of māramataka in schools and across the community	Mana whenua, wider Maori community	Working with Papatuanuku and Makaurau marae to implement maramataka principles - this is a sub regional project, which includes a backyard garden component and goes across a number of settings including schools, home, early childhood education and other key settings identified by community.
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Uptempo	Identify 15-20 primarily Pasifika people engaged in low paying work to transition across to Construction and Infrastructure in leading hand / supervisory roles where income will be in the vicinity of $30/hour	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	Increased individual incomes for participants Pathways for people who have reached the pay ceiling in their current role into higher paying jobs Reduced skills gap for employers	Wider Maori Community	Contractor on board to help identify individuals Identification of partner employers underway
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Progression of Pacific People in the Labour Market	Partner with MBIE and other interested agencies to use a design process to understand what needs to change to accelerate Pacific people's progression in the labour market	A strong local economy A place where communities thrive and belong	Increased wealth and job opportunities for Pasifika people Better resources and support for Pasifika people wanting to enter/progress in the workforce	No direct engagement	Co design process underway, looking for families to participate in project working in partnership with MPTT to identify employers
WHANAU &amp; EARLY YEARS
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Social Investment Board (SIB) Mangere Early Childhood Education Project	TSI has been commissioned by the Ministry of Education to work alongside MoE staff, parents and 25 ECEs and Homecare providers to explore how we might: - Increase participation in Quality ECE - Engage and empower parents - Increase school readiness	A place where communities thrive and belong A well connected area	Improved educational outcomes for children in Mangere	Wider Maori Community	Workshops and interviews underway with ECE providers and Subject Matter Experts to develop opportunities for change
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Healthy Homes	Working with AWHI, DHBs, Beacon Pathway, Council Healthy Rentals, EcoDesign (housing performance) service, MBIE - supporting whānau in private rentals and HNZ to make their homes warm and dry. Managing landlords into making homes warm and dry. Testing different legislation with live case studies	A well connected area A place where communities thrive and belong	Improved housing outcomes for TSI residents	Wider Maori Community	Minor repair service pilot with Habitat for Humanity. Working with AWHI and Kainga Ora - focus on Maori and Pacific whānau Number of Maori whānau to get better housing outcomes - warmer and drier social house rental house or warmer and drier and private rental home Whānau-led prototype with Kootuitui - Papakura . Number of whānau upskilled	Number of referrals of eligible whānau into AWHI.
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Creating home, away from home	Working with Council teams to explore how the 'creating home away from home' insight from South Auckland parents can help make the most of council assets to support whānau with young children. Also includes facilitation of whānau centric design practice, to understand how to better meet the needs of whānau in Manurewa through a strengths based approach.	A range of facilities to meet diverse needs A place where communities thrive and belong	Thriving tamariki and whānau Increased patronage of council facilities Council's services are more relevant to TSI communities Investment into facilities is better targeted and resourced in the right places	Wider Maori Community	Currently in scoping stages
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Healthy Families MMP	Healthy Families Manukau, Manurewa Papakura (MMP) works with communities to think differently about the underlying causes of poor health, and to identify the changes we can make – in our schools, workplaces, sports clubs, marae, places of worship and other key community locations – that will support individuals to make healthier choices.	A place where communities thrive and belong	Improved health outcomes for TSI residents with a focus on Maori, Pasifika and South Asians (those with poorest and most inequitable health outcomes)	Mana Whenua, wider Maori community	Healthy Families have a specific work programme which outlines activities for 17/18 The work programme includes activities around: - replacing SSBs with healthier alternatives in community facilities and events - developing a clear definition of what constitutes a health promoting environment so it is applied across spaces where people live, learn work and play consistently - Smoking Cessation - Reducing alcohol related harm - Working with businesses to create health promoting work places - increasing walkability and cyclability of neighbourhoods to improve health and wellbeing - Improving the food system, including food and beverage offerings within council - Investigating food rescue projects across south Auckland - Developing Incubator kitchen for communities and mentor programme
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Mangere Facilities Partnership Project	Partner with Community Services to identified community groups wanting council land in Mangere to maximise facility investment and opportunity from local board and council	A range of facilities to meet diverse needs A place where communities thrive and belong	Coordinated investment into community facilities in the Mangere area Connected community organisations and collaborative activities between communities.	Wider Maori Community	1st workshop with all organisations involved in project is about to take place on...
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Marae Facilities Partnership Project	Understand the needs of Marae	A range of facilities to meet diverse needs A place where communities thrive and belong	Marae, roopu Māori interviewed	Mana Whenua, Wider Maori Community	Potential marae identified/confirmed to partner with Council in facilities partner relationship
	Mangere-Otahuhu	Local Board Plans Māngere - Otāhuhu Ōtara - Papatoetoe Papakura Manurewa	Regular sharing TSI & LB Work Programmes to ensure a more joined up approach on matters impacting on communities Ka Eke Poutama graduates accepted into Tuia Mentoring programme Mana whenua, mataawaka participation in decision making	A place where communities thrive and belong	Better joined up approach to achieving quality outcomes for South Aucklanders	Mana Whenua, Wider Maori Community	TSI Maori Responsiveness leads have organised quarterly meetings with local board staff		