

A few of the very many volunteers who took part in the Tree Planting, at Waitarua Reserve – Sat 4 Aug, having well deserved refreshments.

G.I.F.T. [Gulf Innovation Fund Together] grantees report back to Foundation North on innovative environmental projects to improve the Mauri of the Gulf.

Auckland could get just five days' warning of eruption

By: Jamie Morton
5:00 AM Friday 27 July, 2018

Aucklanders could get as little as five days' warning of a major volcanic eruption in the city.

While earlier reviews have suggested signs of an imminent eruption in the Auckland Volcanic Field could occur anywhere between six days and three years before a blow, scientists now believe the lowest end of the range was likely just five to 15 days.

An eruption in New Zealand's biggest city

Check out NZ Herald article which includes You Tube enactment of a volcanic eruption... pretty scary...

Plastic bag free July at St Heliers Bay.

Old Road Markings cause Confusion in wet weather along Abbots Way

 NZ Civil Defence
Sponsored •

Have you made an emergency plan for your pets?

Make sure you have enough food and water for them to get through. If you need to evacuate, have a plan to take them with you.

How have you prepared your pets for an emergency?

<https://www.happens.nz/make-a-plan/>

Pets at the ready.

NEVER HAPPENS HAPPENS
Make a plan at www.happens.nz

