Yes or No

Submission by: Alan Parker, 268 Alec Craig Way, Gulf Harbour. Ph: 027 499 9812

This slide features an aerial photograph of the Gulf Harbour Hammerhead peninsula. Two red arrows point to specific locations on the peninsula: one points to the northern tip, and the other points to a central area. The text above the image asks for a 'Yes or No' response to freedom camping on the peninsula.

Let's say Yes to Freedom Camping
But: Make it efficient and easily managed especially in peak holiday times

Introducing the Hammerhead

This slide provides a detailed aerial map of the Hammerhead area, highlighting various facilities and a proposed freedom camping area. The map includes labels for the Yacht club building, Toilet block, Boat trailers parking & overflow trailers, Boat launching ramp, Fenced lawn area, Vehicle parking, Ferry terminal, and Fullers ticket abandoned office. Three numbered points are marked on the map: 1. Freedom Camping area (circled in red), 2. Boat trailers parking & overflow trailers, and 3. Vehicle parking. Two inset photographs are included: one showing a grassy area with a road and another showing a parking lot with several motorhomes parked.
