The work we do is done using our own skills, time and resources and free of charge to the community. We fund our work through The advertising revenue and donations.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- Our urban development attracts quality employment, community and sustainability outcomes that meet the needs of our growing population. Our transport network is accessible, affordable, offers choice and makes it easy to move around.

Weymouth News is the voice of our community. It connects people in Weymouth by informing people about their local rohe. The sharing of news also creates a sense of pride and enjoyment, and encourages the community to treasure their rohe. This in turn encourages them to play a key part in shaping Manurewa, such as the Weymouth Residents and Ratepayers has done with our signage project.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

The community benefits would be as follows – Engaged students that stay in school, which lowers the chance of opportune crimes such as shop lifting and boosting cars. whanau are included, supported and involved as we work together to support the youth. We offer families support by connecting them with local community services and people who care. As will reduced family stress which allows parents to focus on work/home instead of having to attend meetings to deal with student behavior. It will also allow the police to focus on more serious crimes, instead of following up on poorly behaved students during school hours.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- Family, whānau and social wellbeing is strengthened

We get referrals from families, local community NGO's and police in the Papakura area, for us to work with their young people, aged between 8yr old –15rys old, 95% are Maori, the rest are of Pacific ethnicity. The reasons for them being referred is that any they wellbeing is very low they struggle with anxiety, have anger issues. They are inclined to hang out on the streets; get involved in fights often involved in crime and uses drugs. Many of them are not attending schools. They come from very vulnerable families who are struggling with everyday life; family violence is common in their homes.

The outcomes of our mentoring them is Short term – improved positive self-identity & emotional wellbeing; improved school attendance; increased respect for self & others and authority. Medium term – increased academic performance and positive behavioural choices. The cycle of underachievement is broken and social change is happening as young people set and achieve self-determined goals, changing their mind-set on the potential they have for their future. Long term – the intergenerational poverty cycle is broken. The young person achieves educational goals never before achieved in their family resulting in a change of attitude towards education and the relationship of achieving higher paid employment.

We offer families support by connecting them with local community services and people who care. As a result, family stresses are reduced. Home becomes safer and a more functional overall family wellbeing is improved. Positive changes in the community, Youth crime and destructive behaviour is reduced, enhancing community safety and wellbeing.

Location:	Te Ara Poutama AEC 2/16 Weymouth Road Manurewa
Summary:	I am applying for a grant to fund a 3D print workshop through Vaka, for youth from Manurewa enrolled at Te Ara Poutama, aimed at equipping them with the skills to design, print, and market their creations. This initiative will provide hands-on experience in 3D printing technology, fostering creativity and entrepreneurial spirit. By supporting this project, the grant will help bridge the digital divide and create pathways for economic empowerment.
Expertise:	We have extensive experience in delivering similar projects, having been based in the Manurewa area for over 20 years. Prior to that, we delivered the XLR8 programme, a sports-based initiative for AE students across Tamaki Makaurau, where participants achieved NCEA Level 1 in Health and Physical Education. Over the past two years, we have been training youth on the equipment in our makerspace, and we are now ready to expand this learning to further enhance their skills and opportunities.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

The community benefits of this project are significant and wide-reaching. By providing rangatahi with the skills and knowledge to design, create, and market their own products, we are fostering a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship within the local community. This empowers youth to pursue self-employment opportunities, reducing reliance on traditional employment and supporting economic independence. Additionally, the programme promotes social inclusion by engaging youth who may feel disconnected from mainstream education, offering them a sense of purpose and accomplishment. The project also strengthens community ties through the tuakana/teina relationship, where older participants mentor younger ones, fostering a sense of responsibility and community cohesion. Ultimately, this initiative will contribute to a more resilient, skilled, and economically active community.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- Local ventures enjoy economic success, innovation and enterprise

Our programmes align closely with the goal of fostering local ventures that enjoy economic success, innovation, and enterprise. By equipping rangatahi with essential skills in areas such as digital technologies, small business development, and creativity through our makerspace, we are directly nurturing innovation and entrepreneurship. The hands-on experience in designing and producing products prepares them for real-world business opportunities, empowering them to create their own ventures. Through this approach, we are fostering an entrepreneurial mindset that can contribute to the economic success of both the individuals involved and the broader local community.

Collaborating organisation/individual	Role
Vaka	Running the Programme

Demographics

Māori outcomes:

- Māori involvement in the design/concept, Māori participation - Māori priority group, target group, high representation or Māori staff delivering

This project directly targets the following Māori outcomes through its design and delivery:

Māori involvement in the design – The Vaka programme allows rangatahi to design a cultural taonga that reflects their identity and heritage. By empowering them to create their own taonga, we foster a sense of pride and connection to Māori culture, while introducing them to the world of 3D design and printing.

Māori participation – Over 80% of the rangatahi involved in this project are of Māori descent, ensuring the programme is rooted in the Māori community. This high level of Māori participation supports the cultural and educational aspirations of Māori youth, providing opportunities to engage with both traditional cultural practices and modern technological skills.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - This project is designed to be accessible to people with disabilities, including rangatahi with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). We will provide a supportive, inclusive environment that accommodates the specific needs of all participants. This may include tailored teaching methods, flexible learning approaches, and sensory-friendly spaces within the makerspace. By ensuring that all rangatahi feel welcome and supported, we aim to create an environment where everyone can fully engage in the programme and benefit from the skills and opportunities it offers.

Healthy environment approach:

Promote smoke-free messages, Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Healthy options for food and drink, including water as the first choice

To promote a healthy environment for this project, we will implement several key strategies that align with our commitment to hauora (wellbeing). Firstly, the programme will be smoke and vape-free, with clear policies in place to ensure all participants and staff adhere to this standard. We will also prioritise a zero-waste approach by reducing, reusing, and recycling materials wherever possible, especially within our makerspace, and encourage participants to incorporate sustainable practices in their business models. Healthy food and drink options will be provided, with a focus on nutritious, locally sourced items that support physical and mental wellbeing. These practices will not only promote a healthier environment but will also model sustainable and mindful choices for rangatahi, encouraging them to carry these values into their personal and professional lives.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

Yes, this project supports all genders, ethnicities, and ages. We value the tuakana/teina relationship, where rangatahi who take part in the programme will have the opportunity to teach the skills they have learned to others in the community who come through to use the makerspace. This inclusive approach ensures that the benefits of the project extend to a wide range of people, fostering a sense of shared learning and community engagement.

Our experienced staff, including mentors skilled in working with rangatahi and those with disabilities, provide a safe and supportive environment for all participants. ### Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

We deliver events for both tamariki, rangatahi and adults. They are popular because they are fun and we partner with community groups like Clendon Library, Manurewa Library and The Beautification Trust in delivery. Reviewing the feedback we have been given to WHY people attend events - here in our participant's order- want to learn a new DIY skill- accessible (in a local area)- affordable- taking time off for mental wellbeing and being in a community setting.

- Other benefits- showcases the skills needed to live frugally and reduce pressure on whānau
- creative sustainable art/ products (woodwork, clothes, accessories, furniture)
  - promotes intergenerational activities (parents working with kids)
  - positive mental wellbeing through making with your hands
  - promotes an autonomous voice around creative vision (each project is unique)- global waste problem (reduce extraction at source and landfill at end of life)
  - promote sustainable and creative upcycling while being upskilled themselves
  - provides skills and employment to creatives.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- We are a low-carbon community with zero waste

We host fun community events focusing on creative reuse and a low carbon economy. Through an artistic lense, we explain that by upcycling, people are preventing extraction from Papatūānuku (water, soil, trees, biodiversity) and minimising landfill. But more than that - they are learning frugal living skills that require us to be resilient for the future.

Learning these skills within a community setting provides participants with joy, a sense of satisfaction and of connectedness

Collaborating organisation/individual	Role
Clendon Library	Venue, marketing and a helper for tamariki classes
The Beautification Trust	Venue and marketing
Manurewa Library	Venue, marketing and a helper for tamariki classes

Demographics

Māori outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Māori focus - tikanga (practices), mātauranga (knowledge), reo (language)</li> </ul> We aim to include mātauranga and tikanga Māori in our designs especially for Matariki. The ReCreators support the inclusion of Te Reo and indigenous practices in our classes. Our core belief is around kaitiakitanga.
Accessible to people with disabilities	Yes - Held in community centres and libraries with activities suitable to varying abilities..
Healthy environment approach:	Promote smoke-free messages, Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Healthy options for food and drink, including water as the first choice, Encouraging active lifestyles including movement or fitness programmes, Encourage the reduction of carbon emissions or increase community resilience to the impacts of climate change* We promote healthy living through our core zero waste, climate action and community development values. We encourage mindfulness through crafting (which takes people off technology), we also promote intergenerational activities and learning of skills that can be taken back to the family and community. Due to the nature of the materials used we see it breaks down equity barriers and allows all people to be proud of their creations.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

Yes - we are an inclusive and diverse organisation and have always promoted that through our wānanga.

Financial information

Amount requested: $4960.00

Requesting grant for: To deliver free or heavily subsidised events, we need to be adequately funded. This is becoming harder and harder. The skills that we teach are fundamental for a life with climate change.

If part funded, how would you make up the difference:

We will deliver what has been funded. Our contribution includes the labour it takes to gather materials and organise volunteer events including the use of our RE: MAKER SPACE which has commercial rent

Cost of participation: Free for tamariki and community activations. If woodworking for adults then we charge a small fee to ensure that people show up and respect the funding that goes into these activities.

Summary:	To contribute to our front-line service delivery costs in supporting victims of crime, suicide, family harm, and traumatic events.
Expertise:	With over 40 years' experience, we are a trusted organisation with a strong whakapapa and equally strong future focus that is culturally informed. We embrace opportunities to learn and innovate so we can meet the growing need for the exceptional support that victims deserve. In our work, Māori are significantly more likely to experience interpersonal violence and to be highly victimised. Māori also experience significantly higher rates of suicide. Our role therefore comes with considerable responsibility to meet this need in ways that will best support Māori. We have great potential to contribute to a future of prosperity for Māori envisaged by Te Tiriti.

Identified community outcomes:

In the past 12 months we have responded to the needs of 3,559 people in the Manukau region, and we can be confident that they were all well supported during their time of need. Some of these incidents included aggravated robbery, family harm, fatal motor vehicle crashes, fire, fraud, home invasion, homicide, rape and sexual attacks, sudden deaths, workplace accidents, and suicides. Being a victim of a crime or traumatic event has a much wider negative social impact on the community than just that of the victim. We estimate that for every victim we support up to ten other people are also affected: whānau, friends, work colleagues and employers.

Our timely, personalised support and intervention helps victims to keep contributing to their community in their paid and voluntary work, keeps whānau together and reduces the ongoing economic and social costs of mental health issues like post-traumatic stress disorder. The whole community benefits when there are local support networks who care and are generous in volunteering their time.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- Family, whānau and social wellbeing is strengthened

We know crime, family harm, suicide and traumatic events can turn someone’s world upside down. We want people to know they’re not alone and that there are people in the community to help them. Crime and traumatic events can affect anyone and have long-lasting emotional, physical, social and financial impacts. Victims often find whānau and friends don’t know how to support them, and society may blame them rather than accept that bad things can happen to good people. Only 24% of victims in Aotearoa report crimes and many do not achieve resolution through the legal system, which tends to focus more on offenders. Victim Support is here to fill these gaps. Research shows services like ours may help restore victims’ faith in society, rebuild trust and foster community care. Our support helps victims in many ways including feeling listened to, less stressed, informed, empowered and staying engaged with the justice system.

Māori outcomes:

- Māori led - either a Māori organisation that is applying or Māori directed (came about as a request from Māori), Māori involvement in the design/concept, Māori focus - tikanga (practices), mātauranga (knowledge), reo (language), Māori participation - Māori priority group, target group, high representation or Māori staff delivering

Our goal is to provide a service that promotes equity and better outcomes for Māori by being culturally responsive and effective. We are focused on finding innovative ways to ensure that victims' voices are heard. It is vital that both our stakeholders and society understand victims' needs and the importance of supporting them. We continue to develop our service so that it is genuinely victim-centric and we do this by underpinning our services with our Te Tiriti o Waitangi framework, Te Whiringa, so that all areas of our organisation breathe Te Tiriti principles, enabling us to uplift Māori, draw on research, and the lived experiences of our clients.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - We offer New Zealand Sign Language interpreters or services. We provide information in multiple formats, such as large print, or audio recordings. We deliver our services in different ways such as online, in-person, or by phone to meet individual needs. We train staff to understand disability inclusion, communication techniques, and best practices for working with individuals with diverse needs.

Healthy environment approach:

Our offices and spaces are wheelchair accessible, with ramps, elevators, and accessible restrooms. We provide information about accessible public transport or parking near your facilities.

Promote smoke-free messages, Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Healthy options for food and drink, including water as the first choice, Encouraging active lifestyles including movement or fitness programmes, Encourage the reduction of carbon emissions or increase community resilience to the impacts of climate change*

1. Reduce Carbon Footprint in Operations

- We have switched to virtual meetings and training sessions wherever possible using TEAMS to reduce travel emissions.
- We have transitioned to energy-efficient practices: Use LED lighting, optimize heating/cooling settings, and turn off equipment when not in use.
- We minimize waste: Set up recycling and composting stations, move to digital documentation to reduce paper usage, and use recycled materials when possible, for any printed materials.

2. Encourage Environmentally Sustainable Practices in Outreach and Partnerships

We collaborate with sustainable brands.

3. Developing a Sustainability Policy Including specific goals for emissions reduction, waste management, and energy usage, regularly monitoring and reporting progress.

Educating our staff on sustainability practices, like reducing waste and making conscious choices in their day-to-day work.

4. Promote Healthy Messages

- Our resources provide helpful advice on self-care strategies such as healthy food choices and exercise.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

The rainbow community who has much higher incidents of being victimised, and refugees and migrants are also well supported by our organisation. 22% of people who access our services are Māori which is disproportionate to them being 16% of our population. Pasifika people make up 8% of the people who access our services. We continue to develop our work programmes to implement specific programmes to address the inequities in these statistics.

Additional information to support the application:	Government's Real Consequences for Crime statement acknowledges that current victim support systems are strained and relying too heavily on volunteers and goodwill. We strongly agree, so invite our stakeholders to think beyond Victim Support as a mere gesture of goodwill to society. Supporting victims is key to justice system engagement, crime prevention, public safety and confidence, and savings across multiple social indices. We can be a game-changer for victims, the criminal justice system and the country which is supported by international research showing that supporting victims results in significant savings across multiple health, social, and economic indices, including crime prevention.

Project: Waka of Caring Drop-in Centre

Location:	58 Mahia Road, Manurewa
Summary:	Support for the Waka of Caring (WoC) drop-in centre in Manurewa, which has run successfully since December 2019, providing a safe place for people experiencing homelessness in Manurewa, and helping them and other people in South Auckland meet their basic needs, especially as regards food.
Expertise:	CGFH's experience in delivering homelessness support services includes a showers programme in the winter of 2018, and several years with Helping Hands Devonport, the precursor to Sunday Blessings, which has been serving community meals for up to 200 people for 5+ years. Debbie Munroe, the manager of the WoC drop-in centre, has been providing support to homeless people in Manurewa for 12 years, with the support of her WoC team. The centre has run successfully for more than 5 years. The group became one of MSD's essential services providers during the COVID lockdowns. Groups looking to set up similar centres have visited the drop-in centre from other parts of NZ and from Australia to see how this model is run.

Identified community outcomes:

Everyone is welcome at the drop-in centre, six days a week, 9am-6pm and there are no forms to fill in and no eligibility criteria. Waka of Caring serve the community of Manurewa by meeting their basic needs, including food, clothing and household goods. People are are connected to agencies and/or individuals who can help them. At the drop-in centre, people feel listened to and supported. Visitors and volunteers alike can find friends and learn new skills. It is a place where donors in the Manurewa community can bring goods for reuse. Rescued food is collected and distributed. Groups and programmes that have been run or are planned to be run at the centre include: Alcoholics Anonymous, SafeMan SafeFamily, weaving, sewing, making taonga from granite, art therapy, learner licence classes through On Demand, a men's group, a women's group, a "Golden Oldies" group, and Food and Safety Certificates. Youth at Risk attend the drop-in centre through Oranga Tamariki, offenders do community hours there, and students from the Solomon Group undergoing Level 3 training in Community Care, Mental Health and Disabilities attend the drop-in centre. Whanau experiencing problems can meet relevant agencies at the centre for support.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- Our communities experience food security

Waka of Caring operate a foodbank at the drop-in centre, giving out 250+ food parcels Monday-Saturday. During one week in January 2025, they gave out around 300 food parcels a day. They have hot food available at the centre for people to eat while they are visiting. There is no eligibility criteria for receiving a food parcel and whanau know they can come back when they need another one. Waka of Caring receives rescued kai from Kiwi Harvest twice a week, as well as food donations from similar organisations, and does a twice weekly collection of surplus food from Manurewa Woolworths. WoC are keen to establish a community garden, when they have the suitable premises for that.

Demographics

Māori outcomes:

- Māori led - either a Māori organisation that is applying or Māori directed (came about as a request from Māori), Māori involvement in the design/concept, Māori focus - tikanga (practices), mātauranga (knowledge), reo (language), Māori participation - Māori priority group, target group, high representation or Māori staff delivering

The project is Māori led and designed and most of those using the drop-in centre are Māori.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - There are already people with disabilities who attend the centre, which is accessible for wheelchairs. One of these attendees was an autistic child who accompanied his mother, who was very grateful when Debbie gave the child a bowl of flour to play with. (The mother had been embarrassed about her child's presence at the centre.) Some attendees are cancer patients that WoC are supporting and some are elderly people, several with disabilities. Some people who are attending programmes to help them write their CVs have learning disabilities and it is hoped to help these people into employment. Some of the participants in the learner licence classes could not read, so Debbie took them through the material herself.

Healthy environment approach:

Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Healthy options for food and drink, including water as the first choice

The environment for many of these people is sleeping on the street and going hungry. The drop-in centre provides shelter and a place where street people can sit and rest, both physically and mentally. There is a shower at the centre that they can use, and Orange Sky has, in the past, provided its shower and laundry service alongside the centre. Much of the food that is donated is rescued food, thus helping to minimise food wastage and emissions. Healthy options for food and drink include actually having a meal and not going hungry. Food is provided for many whanau in addition to street whanau, who do not have enough to feed themselves: food that can both be eaten at the centre and food that can be taken home to use over a number of days/weeks.

The Healthy Environments Principles that are particularly relevant to the project are:

2: "Kai (food) is nutritious, inclusive, accessible, affordable, celebrated and sustainable,"

3: "Our community champions and leaders continue to promote smokefree, alcohol free & drug free (where appropriate)"

Re Principle 3, the Waka of Caring has supported a number of people to become alcohol or drug free.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

The project supports all genders, ages and ethnicities.

Project: Whakamana Hapu Services

Location:	Manu Tukutuku 32 Riverton Drive, Randwick Park, Auckland
Summary:	This funding will cover the cost of operations to run and facilitate our whanau hubs. These operate on a 10-week cycle, engaging families in South Auckland who are high-end needs i.e Domestic Violence, Unemployment, Youth Suicide and Family Breakdown.
Expertise:	Over the past three years, we have run 4 10 week rotations annually. Our 'Whakamana Hapu's initiative has expanded across Auckland, focusing on high-risk, low-decile areas in South Auckland, including Mangere, Otahuhu. In the communities, where families are particularly vulnerable to issues such as family breakdowns, crime, domestic violence, and substance abuse, our programs have been well-received. We evaluate our programs and events through family feedback, online surveys, and word of mouth, as our organisation has built a strong reputation in the areas we operate. The most significant evidence of our impact is the testimonials and transformed lives of the families we've supported, who are now more open to change and seeking the right support for their health and well-being.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

A substantial number of the families we engage with reside within the Manurewa area. Our Whakamana Hapu approach, which aims to connect families to improved opportunities and foster healthier lifestyles, is a crucial initiative responding to the significant need in this community. Manurewa faces elevated risks across various factors impacting family health and well-being. To better comprehend and address the distinct needs of this diverse community, we provide weekly hub access. Families from Manurewa can gather 2-3 times per week, actively participating in our services and programs. This regular interaction not only builds a sense of community, also provides us with essential insights into the specific needs of families in these areas. Through these collaborative efforts, we are dedicated to making a meaningful and targeted impact on the well-being of families in the Manurewa area.

Alignment with local board priorities:

This observation underscores our commitment to inclusivity, acknowledging that individuals from diverse backgrounds may benefit from and contribute to the supportive environment we strive to create. Our doors remain open to everyone, fostering a sense of community that transcends ethnic, racial, and age differences, and encourages collaboration and mutual support.

Project: Mentoring boys who dont have a father in their lives

Location:	300 Great South Road, Greenlane
Summary:	Mentoring for Manurewa boys who do not have a father in their lives. We will match boys (7-14) with good men willing to volunteer their time to help guide the boys into adulthood, leading by example and showing them what it means to be a good man. Currently we have 4 Manurewa boys matched or waiting.
Expertise:	We have been matching boys since 1996 and we have matched almost 1200 boys without any safety concerns. Our gold-standard screening programme ensures each volunteer can provide what each individual boy needs. 865 of our matches have lasted more than a year; 523 more than 3 years and 350 for 5 years or more.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

The Big Buddy Mentoring Programme envisions a community in which every boy experiences a nurturing one-to-one relationship with at least one adult male, which in turn allows each of them to develop into their full adult potential; capable of making informed, responsible decisions as involved members of our community.

Without a father figure a boy will grow up searching for what it means to be a man, some are lucky and find it, others won't and the rest of us will feel the consequences - that is boys growing into angry, sad or just plain bad men, inflicting their dysfunction on the world through crime, violence and suicide. Statistics show that about 80 per cent of men in prison in New Zealand had no functional father when growing up or no relationship with their father. Boys who grow up without a father figure can flounder a bit. They need good men in their lives to reference themselves against.

Every boy needs a father figure - a role model - and our goal is to find them one by recruiting, screening and training male volunteers towards becoming the father figures these boys need. In the process we build a better world.

Alignment with local board priorities:

Manurewa

- Family, whānau and social wellbeing is strengthened

Boys with a Big Buddy in their lives are more confident, because they feel more secure. They become more resilient and are willing to try new things. Their caregivers regularly report improved behavior, better results at school and say that their boys are just happier.

The boy feels valued and this increases his self-confidence. Having a man who cares just about his well-being tells him he is worth caring about. Because he feels better about himself, he'll try new things and learn resilience through coping with failure and success.

 Research shows that boys fall through the cracks more than girls when you look at achievement. And there is a lack of male teachers in schools, not having positive male role models at school, at home and in other settings all contribute to boys not being seen and not being valued.
 Many boys express deep gratitude for the opportunity to have a Big Buddy, but also some have a harder shell, and it can take time and patience to break through external defenses and get them to open up. Ultimately these are some of the issues of why our male youth suicide rates are so alarmingly high in New Zealand.

Demographics

- Māori outcomes:
  - Māori participation - Māori priority group, target group, high representation or Māori staff delivering*

About 25% of the boys who participate in our programme identify as Maori and about 10% of volunteer mentors are Maori.
- Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - We spend time with the boys and their caregivers so our Mentor Manager can understand what he needs in a Big Buddy mentor. The manager then carefully selects a potential mentor and supports the match through the early stages. If a boys has special needs or physical limitations, this is taken into account during the volunteer selection process.
- Healthy environment approach:

Encouraging active lifestyles including movement or fitness programmes
 We encourage our big Buddies to take the boys out and spend time together walking the dog, fishing or mowing the lawn. Shared activities strengthen the bond.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

Boys aged 7-14.
